WITH TWO NEW ADDITIONS

The Saywitz Company, a national commercial real estate and brokerage and consulting firm headquartered in Newport Beach, has recently expanded its brokerage operations with the addition of two new individuals to the firm. The Saywitz Company has added Jill Gibbons and Christy Caprine who will provide administrative support and assistance to the firm's brokerage division. Christy Caprine comes to The Saywitz Company with vast experience in office administration. She is a lifelong resident of Orange County and currently resides in Huntington Beach with her husband and two children.

Jill Gibbons joins The Saywitz Company with more than 20 years of experience in office administration, international trading and real estate development. She comes to The Saywitz Company with previous rolls with Technigroup USA in Anaheim and Prescott Properties in Tustin. Jill was also in the intelligence division in the United States Marine Corps. She currently resides in Costa Mesa.

Barry Saywitz, President of The Saywitz Company, noted "Both Christy and Jill will make excellent assets to our team environment. Their experience, attention to detail and team approach will fit nicely into the firms gameplan as we continue to grow."

The Saywitz Company is a national commercial real estate brokerage firm which exclusively represents tenants and users of commercial real estate. The Saywitz company is one of the largest privately held commercial real estate brokerage companies in Southern California.
