

Movers & Shakers

October 8, 2012

Tyler Garcia

The Saywitz Company hired Tyler Edminsten-Garcia as associate in the firm's Newport Beach office. Garcia will assist the firm's business development group in the expansion of its client base in Southern California. Prior to joining The Saywitz Company, he worked for Verizon Wireless and Adecco in business development, customer service and client relations. Garcia currently resides in Irvine and has been a resident of Orange County for more than 23 years. Garcia's experience in client relations and business development will prove to be a valuable asset to the company's business development group.