The Saywitz Company Closes Office Lease in Culver City for $1.7 Million

September 26, 2012

The Saywitz Company recently negotiated an office lease in Century City, Calif. totaling $1.7 million and 7,124 square feet. Robert Ritschel, senior vice president with The Saywitz Company, represented Wargo & French – a national full service law firm - in the relocation of its west coast offices. The firm's new home is located at 1888 Century Park East in Century City, Calif. The law firm, with offices in Atlanta and Miami, specializes in commercial litigation, labor and employment law, class action litigation, securities and intellectual property and trade secrets. Anthony Gatti of Jones, Lang & LaSalle's Century City office represented the owner in the transaction.
